Obituary

Eugene “Genieboy” Smith born date was March 4, 1945 to his parents, Artlet and Pearl Smith he was the baby boy of eight siblings.

Eugene’s early childhood elementary years were spent at Dunbar Elementary ‘the colored school’ as it was formally named. He continued his education at Shawnee High School.

Eugene accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior early in life while attending Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Shawnee, Oklahoma.

“Genieboy” transitioned to “Genieman” and adulthood in the early 70’s, he moved to Oklahoma City and met and married Miss Brenda Robertson and from that union four children were born, and so was his career in the hospitality industry. He entertained the elite of Oklahoma City for a better part of 40 years.

His life took a u-turn on January 2, 2017, and he rededicated his life to Christ and became a member of “Monument of Faith.”

Eugene never took a day for granted, he lived out loud, his love for his children, grandchildren, family and friends was contagious “family before everything” that was his motto.

He enjoyed a good political debate, dominoes, spades, the investigation channel and time with family and friends. We will miss his giving nature, sweet spirit, zest for life and words of wisdom. Thank you “Mr. President.”

The Lord called you home November 13, 2020. Until we meet again. You were somebody to everybody and everybody was somebody to you.

Eugene is preceded in death by his parents, Artlet and Pearl, his wife Brenda, his daughter Rhonda, brothers Artlet, Charles A., Howard, Ronald Ray and his sisters Wanda and Joy Lee.

“Genieman” leaves his sister Aggie; son Eugene; daughters Ebony, Eulene and Janet; his life partner Wanda; a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends to celebrate his life as he would on earth. Thank you Wanda for the exceptional care of our dad.
